

A close-up photograph of a compost pile. The pile is composed of dark brown, decomposed organic matter. In the foreground, there are several small yellow flowers and a whole orange. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the compost pile and some green foliage.

COMPOST WORKSHOP

LEARN HOW AND WHY YOU
SHOULD COMPOST

MARCH 22, 2016, 6PM-7PM

IX BUILDING - 963 2ND STREET SE

TO REGISTER: AELLIS@JRAVA.ORG 804-788-8811 X 205

FREE COMPOST BIN FOR THE FIRST ATTENDEE!